WORKSHOP ON NATIONAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORY LIMITED

The Departments of Economics and Commerce, in partnership with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), hosted a workshop titled 'National Securities Depository Limited' on November 29, 2018, specifically tailored for M.Com students.

Objective: The primary objective of this workshop was to provide M.Com students with comprehensive insights into various investment opportunities and measures for safeguarding investors' interests.

Event Description: The workshop saw enthusiastic participation from a significant number of M.Com students. The workshop featured two prominent resource persons: Mr. Arun Sharma, Deputy Company Secretary of SJVN Shimla, and Mr. Ankur Mittal, Assistant Vice President of NSDL. Mr. Arun Sharma initiated the workshop by presenting an overview of the stock market and its operational dynamics. He delved into the diverse investment options available in the market and underscored the significance of diversifying one's investment portfolio. Mr. Sharma also shed light on SEBI's pivotal role in regulating the market to ensure investor protection. Following this, Mr. Ankur Mittal, the second speaker, conducted an in-depth presentation on the National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL). He elucidated the array of services provided by NSDL, including dematerialization of shares, account maintenance, and trade settlement. Mr. Mittal emphasized the advantages of investing in dematerialized securities, highlighting how it minimizes the risks associated with theft, loss, or forgery. The workshop concluded with an engaging Q&A session, during which students had the opportunity to seek clarifications and resolve doubts with the resource persons. The workshop proved to be highly informative and interactive, equipping M.Com students with valuable knowledge concerning the stock market, NSDL, and the myriad investment prospects available to them.

Outcome: This workshop achieved remarkable success and played a pivotal role in enhancing the financial literacy of the students.

E-FILING OF RETURN WORKSHOP

The workshop took place on October 18, 2018, in the seminar room, specially tailored for M.Com students.

Objectives:

1. Comprehensive Understanding: The primary objective of this workshop was to ensure that M.Com students acquire a comprehensive understanding of the entire process and formalities involved in e-filing income tax returns online. This included not only the technical steps but also the legal and procedural aspects.
2. Tax Form Familiarization: Another key aim of the workshop was to make students aware of the various tax forms accessible on the income tax website. Understanding the specific forms and their applicability is crucial in accurately reporting income and claiming deductions or exemptions.

Event Overview: The workshop was conducted in a practical and interactive manner, ensuring that students were actively engaged in the process. During the workshop, students were provided hands-on experience in filing income tax returns online. They were guided through each step, from registration and data entry to verification and submission. Additionally, the workshop included a detailed exploration of the income tax website, where students were introduced to the various tax forms available. This segment of the workshop aimed to demystify the sometimes-complex world of tax forms, making it easier for students to select the appropriate form for their specific financial situations.
